Care// Protect// Lead

Make more of a difference

Don't just care for your patients. Help us protect the public. You'll be in a safe healthcare environment, with one of the clearest paths to a senior role. With more variety, challenge and the rewards to match, the Met offers more than you might realise.

More about the role

Our Healthcare Practitioners care for people in custody who may be vulnerable and need treatment for a range of conditions, including mental health issues. As an experienced Registered Nurse or paramedic, you'll be confident taking the lead, working on your own steam and doing some detective work of your own.

Enjoy more benefits

- Safe, modern workplace
- Career development, including senior level
- Full induction, training & supported shifts
- £1k annual CPD funding
- Academic course sponsorship
- £2,500 welcome bonus
- £2,500 1-year service bonus

Help us end street homelessness

Thames Reach runs projects and services that help to end street homelessness in London.

We work directly with homeless people on the streets, in hostels and to prevent vulnerable people from becoming homeless. We help get their lives back on track.

Our employees come from all walks of life and we value transferrable skills. Is our mission easy? No, but we never give up on people. Last year we helped more than 15,000 people.

We are listed in the top 100 UK Best Workplaces 2024 in the UK. As part of a commitment to our employees we offer:

- 29 days annual leave plus public holidays (pro rata)
- 6.5% employer pension contribution.
- Life assurance - four times your annual salary.
- Critical illness cover.
- Wellbeing support including 24/7 EAP with availability of counselling.
- Other benefits including interest free season ticket and cycle to work loans.

Thames Reach

Be part of something incredible
Find your perfect role

We value, respect, and celebrate diversity. Thames Reach is committed to achieving a diverse workforce that reflects the communities we serve.

We welcome and encourage applicants from all sections of the community regardless of their history of homelessness, sex, race, disability, age, sexual orientation, or religious belief.
